

Western Mariner

The Magazine of the Coast

September 2004 ▶ Volume 2 ▶ Number 7

Features

On the Horizon ▶ 11

Mandatory Construction Standards for Small Commercial Vessels

Working in Wood

Southern Vancouver Island ▶ 12

Wood Schools ▶ 19

By Rob Morris

Gardner: "Prince of Diesels" ▶ 20

By Shirley Hewett

Professional Directory ▶ 22

Island Crown ▶ 26

New Power for a Classic Tug

By Alan Haig-Brown and Rob Morris

They're Back! ▶ 28

Sardines Return to BC

By Don Pepper

Departments

From the Editor's Desk 4
Working in Wood

From the Publisher's Desk . . . 4
Across the Bar

Letters 5

A Letter from Home 9
Voyages and Discoveries

Name this Spot 10

Rules of the Road 25
Quiz 40: Dayshapes
By Capt J.D. Oliver

Books in Brief 25
Cannery Village: Company Town
By K. Mack Campbell

News 30
*Huge Container Port Expansion
Planned for Prince Rupert,
Master Clinker Boatbuilder
"Retires", Mary Mackin Burns,
Controversy Continues Over
Offshore Ferry Contracts.*

In the Shipyards 32

Calendar 35

Classifieds 35

12

20

26

Master shipwright Akio Oura caulks the stem and forefoot of a fishing vessel at Port Alberni Marine Industries.

Photo by Rob Morris.