

Western Mariner

The Magazine of the Coast

October 2004 ▶ Volume 2 ▶ Number 8

Features

Saltair Marine ▶ 10

20 Years of Family on the Water

By Rob Morris

Mid-Vancouver Island Waterfront ▶ 15

Ladysmith & Chemainus

By Rob Morris

The International Ship
and Port Facility Security Code ▶ 20

Training for Canada's Maritime Industry

By Douglas A. Scattergood

In the Shipyards – Special Feature ▶ 28

Focus on Aluminum Boatbuilders – Part I

By Rob Morris

Departments

From the Editor's Desk . . . . . 4
Security

From the Publisher's Desk . . . 4

Letters . . . . . 5

A Letter from Home . . . . . 9
Whales and Other Cetaceans

Name this Spot . . . . . 12

Rules of the Road . . . . . 23

*Quiz 41: Sound Signals &
Harbour Buoys*
By Capt J.D. Oliver

Books in Brief . . . . . 25

News . . . . . 30

*Steveston Lifeboat Milestone,
BMT Fleet Tech Acquires Peter
S. Hatfield Ltd., Port
Development Planned on Both Sides of Burrard Inlet, Oil & Gas
Back on the Burner, Oil
Producers Want to Leave
Structures Behind, Ex-Forestry
Vessels Rendezvous, Flags Fly
Upside Down in River Protest.*

Calendar . . . . . 38

Classifieds . . . . . 39

10

15

Jones Marine's Harken
No 10 escorts the lumber carrier Hoegh Monal into Chemainus Harbour.

Photo by Cim MacDonald.